Akio and Miss Helen Emery Married in Seattle

Seattle, March 27.—Gunjiro Aoki as granted a license to wed Helen Gladys Emery in this city this morning. The party then disappeared and are supposed to be at some minister's house for the ceremony. The Emery family registered at one of the leading notels The license was secured by Arch-deacon Emery, father of Miss Helen A local Japanese accompanied him as a witness. The time for the wedding was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

While the license was being obtained, all of the parties interested in the approaching welding separated, going in different directions in cabs to elude reporters and the curious crowd, which vas constantly increasing in size

The entire Japanese colony of Seat le, numbering 7,000 or 8,000 persons, ad become keenly alive to the situa tion, and the public generally is good naturedly interested. No one talks of a demonstration, however, and both the archdeacon and Mrs. Emery are now extremely anxious to allay the furore that sprang up, when the father first expressed his disappointment and disapproval of the match.

The marriage was performed at 11:45 a. m., by Rev. H. H. Gower, rector of Trinity parish, Episcopal church, in the presence of the parents of the bride and J. J. W. Sunada.

BOYCOTTED IN JAPAN

Victoria, B. C., March 27.-That a eycott of American goods under the guise of enforcement of a "pure food law," has been started in Japan, is the statement of a weekly newspa-per published at Yokohama, according to mail advices received here. The paper says:

"For some unexplained reason, ex-cepting that action has been taken under the 'food law,' Japan officials, backed up by police officers, have been calling upon foreign and native gro-cers and confiscating their stock of certain brands of goods. Strange to say, the goods confiscated have been American goods only, and the offi-cials do not even look at the British, German and French goods that were strongly in evidence. Another feature of these strange proceedings was nearly all the articles confiscated bore stamp of the American health board, and each package was printed with all the names of the ingredients contained
